

Summative Participation Rubric, to be used at the end of the semester as a graded assessment, [typically determines 15% of final grade]

Criteria	3 points	2 points	1 point	0 points
Acts respectfully towards others: speaks in turn giving others who have not contributed a chance to speak first, speaks politely, and recognizes the contributions of others before speaking	Acts respectfully all of the time	Acts respectfully most of the time, but sometimes speaks over others, is impolite, or repeats the ideas of others without giving credit	Acts respectfully some of the time, but more often speaks over others, is impolite, or repeats the ideas of others without giving credit	Repeatedly acts disrespectfully towards classmates and/or instructor
Contributes to class discussions	Speaks in every class at least once	Speaks in most classes	Speaks occasionally during class	Does not speak during class
References course content and vocabulary appropriately	References course material regularly and correctly	References course material occasionally, may do so erroneously at times	Rarely references course material, or frequently does so erroneously	Does not reference course content and vocabulary, or does so erroneously
Participates in in-class exercises	Participates in in-class exercises regularly	Participates in in-class exercises occasionally	Participates in in-class exercises occasionally	Does not participate in in-class exercises
Addresses any concerns raised at mid-semester check-in	Demonstrates improvement in any and all areas of concern discussed at mid-semester check-in	Demonstrates improvement in most areas of concern discussed at mid-semester check-in	Demonstrates improvement in some areas of concern discussed at mid-semester check-in	Has not addressed any concerns raised during mid-semester check-in